Partners In Ministry Welcomes Camber

Tyran Hill from the Camber Foundation paid a visit to Partners In Ministry on November 7th. The Camber Foundation is one of many donors and partners we have to support our mission here. Mr. Hill got to visit all of our classrooms and spoke to a few of our teachers, and students, about the wonderful and exciting things we do here at Partners.

Upward Bound

This month, our scholars had the chance to explore two colleges: North Carolina Central University and the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

The experience was both informative and enjoyable for those who participated! These tours provided our scholars with valuable insights into college life, the courses offered, campus facilities, and the overall academic atmosphere.

Students participated in a potluck-style “Friendsgiving” with their peers and friends, which was part of our ongoing recruitment initiatives. Potential recruits had the opportunity to learn about the Upward Bound program while savoring dinner in a welcoming and friendly atmosphere.

JCPC Program

This month, our Coordinator and mentors focused on enhancing relationships through fun and impactful activities. We started with an Ice Cream Social, where mentors and mentees bonded over their favorite flavors and light conversations, breaking the ice both literally and figuratively.

Next, the group engaged in a Community Car Wash, turning teamwork into an opportunity for communication, responsibility, and cooperation. The event was productive and memorable, filled with suds, sunshine, and laughter. To keep the energy high, we organized an RC-Car Activity, where mentees raced and strategized, fostering trust and confidence.

Beyond group events, mentors made progress in one-on-one sessions, exploring personal goals and challenges, creating a safe growth environment.

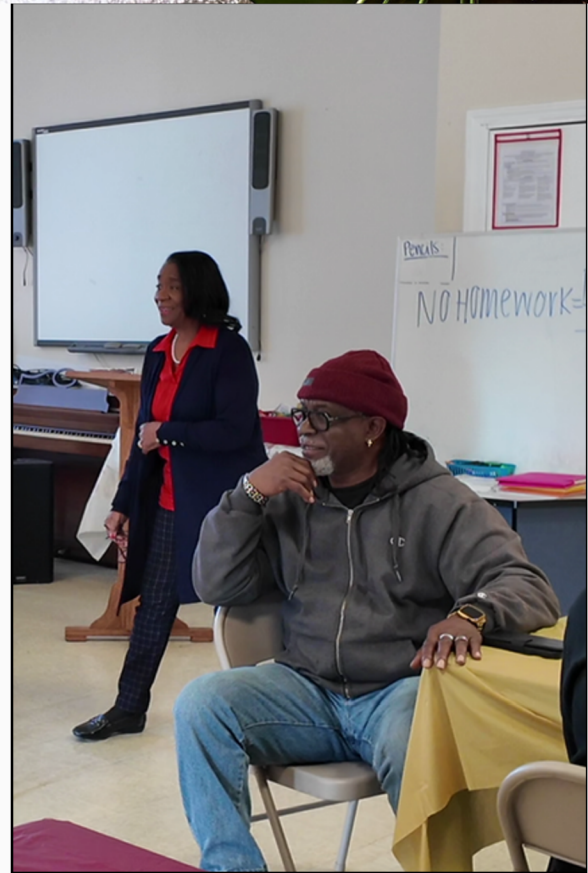

These experiences show how meaningful connections can form in both structured and spontaneous settings. Through shared treats, tasks, and victories, our Coordinator and mentors are committed to helping mentees build confidence, teamwork skills, and a sense of belonging.

Celebrating Thanksgiving at PIM

At Partners In Ministry, we strive to work together and operate like a family. On November 20th, our entire team came together to celebrate with a Thanksgiving luncheon, where several staff members contributed to the meal. It was a delightful occasion to express gratitude and enjoy each other's company.
